Westminster, Thursday, November 25, 1790.

HIS Majesty, being seated on the Throne, adorned with His Crown and Regal Ornaments, and attended by His Officers of State, (the Lords being in their Robes) commanded the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod to let the Commons know, It is His Majesty's Pleasure that they attend Him immediately in this House: Who being come,

The Lord Chancellor, having received Directions, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has been pleased to command me to acquaint you, that He will defer declaring the Causes of calling this Parliament till there shall be a Speaker of the House of Commons. And therefore it is His Majesty's Pleasure that you, Gentlemen of the House of Commons, do immediately repair to the Place where the Commons usually sit, and there chuse a fit Person to be your Speaker; and that you present such Person who shall be so chosen, to His Majesty here, for His Royal Approbation, Tomorrow, at Two o'Clock.

Then His Majesty was pleased to retire, and the Commons withdrew.

Westminster, Friday, November 26, 1790.

THIS Day the Two Houses of Parliament having again met, His Majesty went in State to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, presented to His Majesty the Right Honourable Henry Addington, whom they had chosen to be their Speaker. And the Lord Chancellor having, by the King's Command, signified His Majesty's Approbation of their Choice, His Majesty was then pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is a great Satisfaction to Me to inform you that the Differences which had arisen between Me and the Court of Spain have happily been brought to an amicable Termination.

I have ordered Copies of the Declarations exchanged between My Ambassador and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, to be laid before you.

The Objects which I have proposed to Myself in the Whole of this Transaction, have been to obtain a suitable Reparation for the Act of Violence committed at Nootka, and to remove the Grounds of similar Disputes in future; as well as to secure to My Subjects the Exercise of their Navigation, Commerce, and Fisheries in those Parts of the World which were the Subject of Discussion.

The Zeal and Public Spirit manifested by all Ranks of My Subjects, and the Disposition and Conduct of My Allies, had left Me no room to doubt of the most vigorous and effectual Support; but no Event could have afforded Me so much Satisfaction, as the Attainment of the Objects which I had in View, without any actual Interruption of the Blessings of Peace.

Since the last Session of Parliament, a Foundation has been laid for a Pacification between Austria and the Porte; and I am now employing My Mediation, in Conjunction with My Allies, for the Purpose of negotiating a Definitive Treaty between those Powers, and of endeavouring to put an End to the Dissentions in the Netherlands, in whose Situation I am necessarily concerned, from Considerations of National Interest, as well as from the Engagements of Treaties.

A separate Peace has taken Place between Russia and Sweden; but the War between the former of those Powers and the Porte still continues. The Principles on which I have hitherto acted, will make Me always desirous of employing the Weight and Influence of this Country in contributing to the Restoration of General Tranquillity.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Accounts of the Expences of the late Armaments, and the Estimates for the ensuing Year, to be laid before you.

Painful as it is to Me at all Times to see any Increase of the Public Burthens, I am persuaded you will agree with me in thinking that the Extent of Our Preparations was dictated by a due Regard to the existing Circumstances, and that you will reflect with Pleasure on so striking a Proof of the Advantages

Advantages derived from the liberal Supplies granted ſince the laſt Peace for the Naval Service. I rely on your Zeal and Public Spirit to make due Proviſion for defraying the Charges incurred by this Armament, and for ſupporting the ſeveral Branches of the Public Service on ſuch a Footing as the general Situation of Affairs may appear to require. You will at the ſame Time, I am perſuaded, ſhew your Determination invariably to perſevere in that Syſtem which has ſo effectually confirmed and maintained the Public Credit of the Nation.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

You will have obſerved with Concern the Interruption which has taken Place in the Tranquillity of Our Indian Poſſeſſions, in conſequence of the unprovoked Attack on an Ally of the Britiſh Nation. The reſpectable State, however, of the Forces under the Direction of the Government there, and the Confidence in the Britiſh Name, which the Syſtem preſcribed by Parliament has eſtabliſhed among the Native Powers in India, afford the moſt favourable Proſpect of bringing the Conteſt to a ſpeedy and ſucceſsful Concluſion.

I think it neceſſary particularly to call your Attention to the State of the Province of Quebec, and to recommend it to you to conſider of ſuch Regulations for its Government as the preſent Circumſtances and Condition of the Province may appear to require.

I am ſatisfied that I ſhall, on every Occaſion, receive the fulleſt Proofs of your zealous and affectionate Attachment, which cannot but afford Me peculiar Satisfaction after ſo recent an Opportunity of collecting the immediate Senſe of My People.

You may be aſſured that I deſire nothing ſo much on My Part as to cultivate an entire Harmony and Confidence between Me and My Parliament, for the Purpoſe of preſerving and tranſmitting to Poſterity the invaluable Bleſſings of our free and excellent Conſtitution, and of concurring with you in every Meaſure which can maintain the Advantages of Our preſent Situation, and promote and augment the Proſperity and Happineſs of My faithful Subjects.

St. James's, November 24.

This Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majeſty (being introduced by the Marquis of Saliſbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majeſty's Houſhold) with the following Addreſs, which was read by John William Roſe, Eſq; the Recorder.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, approach your Majeſty with Hearts full of Gratitude upon the agreeable Proſpect of a Continuance of eſtabliſhed Peace by the Convention with Spain.

Deeply affected with the Injuries ſuſtained by our Fellow Subjects from that Nation, we concurred in the general Sentiments of the whole Kingdom, expreſſed by the Two Houſes of Parliament, on receiving your Majeſty's moſt gracious Meſſage in the laſt Seſſion, and we beheld with Confidence the vigorous Meaſures which were adopted to gain full Satisfaction for the Injuries done, and to maintain the Honor and Dignity of the Britiſh Empire; to which Meaſures, and to your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Intereſts of your People, next to the Divine Providence, we thankfully aſcribe the happy Iſſue of the late Diſagreements.

Your Majeſty's faithful Citizens of London are too well convinced of the ſalutary Conſequences of continued Peace, to delay their Congratulations upon the Reconciliation with Spain; for, notwithſtanding they have ever manifeſted their Readineſs to bear a Proportion of Burthens created by the Proſecution of a juſt War, they cannot but moſt ardently rejoice at a Termination of pending Hoſtilities, at a Time when the Reduction of the National Debt is an Object of Importance to Your People.

Deign, Sire, to accept our moſt cordial Wiſhes that Your Majeſty's Reign may long continue in Peace and Proſperity over a grateful and affectionate People.

Signed, by Order of the Court,

William Rix.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Receive, with great Pleaſure, the dutiful and loyal Addreſs of the City of London. The Protection of the Navigation and Commerce of My Subjects is a principal Object of My Attention: And I am confident that I may always expect their unanimous Support in ſuch Meaſures as may be neceſſary for that Purpoſe. It affords Me the higheſt Satisfaction to reflect, that on the preſent Occaſion this Object has been attained without diſturbing that Public Tranquillity, which is productive of ſuch great and increaſing Advantages to My People.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honor to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

After which, His Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honor of Knighthood on John William Roſe, Eſq; the Recorder, and Richard Carr Glyn, Eſq; one of the Sheriffs.

Whitehall, November 27.

The King has been pleaſed to grant the Dignity of a Baron of the Kingdom of Great Britain to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, by the Name, Style and Title of Baron Grenville, of Wotton under Bernewood in the County of Buckingham.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint his Grace the Duke of Montroſe to be Maſter of the Horſe to His Majeſty.

The King has been pleaſed to preſent the Reverend Henry William Coulthurſt, Batchelor in Divinity, to the Vicarage of Halifax in the County and Dioceſe of York, void by the Death of the Rev. rend Henry Wood, Doctor in Divinity.

St. James's, November 26.

This Day the Landgrave of Furſtenberg had a Private Audience of Leave of His Majeſty; to which he was introduced by His Grace the Duke of Leeds, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Vienna, November 13.

The Emperor ſet out from hence on the 9th Inſtant for his Country Palace at Schloſshof, and the next Day his Imperial Majeſty made his Public Entry into Preſbourg, amidſt the Acclamations of his Hungarian Subjects.

On the 11th Inſtant the Emperor propoſed to the Diet (in Conformity to the Fundamental Laws) Four Perſons proper to fill the high Office of Palatine of the Kingdom, the Choice amongſt thoſe being left to the States. The Diet, by unanimous Conſent, ſeized on this Occaſion to manifeſt their Loyalty and hearty Attachment to the Family of their Monarch, by making it their earneſt Requeſt, that he would be graciouſly pleaſed to indulge their Wiſhes, by granting to the Nation, as their Palatine, the Fourth Arch-Duke Leopold, who was there preſent. His Apoſtolic Majeſty complied very readily with this National Requeſt, and the Arch-Duke Leopold was immediately confirmed in that high Employment.

Their Sicilian Majeſties arrived here in good Health on the 8th Inſtant, and departed for Preſbourg on the Day following, with the Arch-Dukes and Arch-Ducheſſes, in order to aſſiſt at the abovementioned Ceremony.
